

Editorial

"Twenty years, Twenty songs is my musical journey. I invite you all to come share this musical trajectory with me - it will be an evening to remember!

So put on your dancing shoes; you will enjoy music from releases like "Songs from the source of the Nile", "Eisadha" and lots of other songs not released yet.

This eclectic collection will be your experience of a true Eastern Ugandan sound."

2nd Dance Transmissions Festival

21-23 October

Venue: National Theatre

"The Festival includes performances, dance workshops, seminars, discussion forums, visual arts exhibition and collaborations between local and international artists. This will also provide companies and individual artists with a platform to exchange with other dance companies and artists from Africa and further abroad." This edition's theme will centre on questions of "Explorations and Boundaries" and notions of developing a contemporary dance aesthetic in Africa.
