FOREWORD

Dear friends, members, and students of the AFK,

Kampala has once again become the vibrant city which was described to me years ago! I am impressed by the number of cultural events and the dynamism of Uganda in the artistic field.

The Alliance Française Kampala is proud of playing its part in this field alongside the main cultural stakeholders and the emerging artistic scene. We wish to thank all the partners who have helped us with our Akatuuti program, a trans-disciplinary platform for the emerging Ugandan creatives. We have witnessed great shows at our new concert space on Bukoto street in Kanjokya. If you have not attended yet, please stay tuned and come and experience one of the next editions.

Patrice GILLES
Director

In the meantime, we will bring magic to Kampala! Black Magic more specifically! An amazing band from Senegal and France that will rock you for the World Music Day which we will celebrate on the 20th of June at UNCC gardens: A Jam Session on the Lawn, as this event will be held in partnership with the Jam Session.

We will also host SMADJ Dual, SMADJ's latest project, on the 16th of June at the basement, the AFK's concert space. SMADJ is a talented "Oud" player (an "Oud" is a short neck lute type of string instrument with 10 to 13 strings) from France/Tunisia who loves mixing acoustic and electronic sounds.

In May, the AFK also speaks German and the Goethe Zentrum (The German Cultural Centre who shares our building) speaks French during the "Moving Identities Festival". 3 weeks of joint events, workshops and conferences which explore identity issues through digitalism, gender equality and displacement.

We hope to see you at our events, the AFK is a home for all, and we are proudly Ugandan!

Patrice GILLES
Director

MOVING IDENTITIES FESTIVAL

GOV THE ZENTRUM
KOOPERATIONSPARTNER
KAMPALA

AFK/GZK Basement Located at Bukoto Street, Plot 52, Kamwokya

HELLO DEAR FRIENDS OF THE ALLIANCE FRANCAISE AND THE GOETHE-ZENTRUM KAMPALA/ UGCS,

Since the year 2021, a new breeze has come into the relationship between AFK and GZK/UGCS. In addition to sharing premises, our two organisations share similar objectives on democratisation and cultural mixing, promoting the local art scene and giving artists a platform.

After a French German week which started last May, we are now moving up a gear with a whole month together, but not only.

We are therefore happy to present you the Moving Identities Festival!
Moving identities means moving ideas, sharing experiences, knowledges and with this the future! Together with you and experts of the public and academic fields in Gender Equality, Digitalism and Displacement we want to find out where we all stand, find an equal position to be and jointly act towards a blasting future full of warm circulating and freely and moving identities through arts.

Inspired by the French Institutes network and the German Ministry of Foreign Affairs, we are focusing our project on 3 main themes that question our time: Digitalism, Gender Equality and Displacement. For each of these themes, we are working with local partners who are stirring up and changing mindsets on these topics, based in Uganda but not forgetting the global context either!

TO WHAT EXTENT DO THESE TOPICS AFFECT OUR DAILY LIVES? WHO ARE THE ACTORS OF THESE TOPICS? HOW CAN WE MEET THE CHALLENGES OF OUR TIME?

Through conferences, workshops and festive events (no entrance fee!), we will try to answer these questions, without forgetting to dance and celebrate cultures, networking and sharing future ideas!

We will see you there!

Jean-Pierre Smadja (aka Smadj) was born in Tunisia. Landed in Paris in his childhood, he will quickly become one of the cornerstones of the effervescent Parisian scene. Giving up the guitar for the oud, he made a name beyond the hexagon borders, thanks to his electro-oriental jazz compositions. Smadj released many albums. He has been playing, recording and touring for many years, especially with Mehdi Haddab and the DuOud project.

He is also artistic director “producer”, requested from Turkey to Australia. Mixing acoustic and electric is his very-own signature.

He has collaborated across the world with Talvin Singh, Ibrahim Maalouf, Erik Truffaz, Magic Malik Mezzadri, Stephano di Baptista, Amit Chatterjee, Rokia Traoré, Mehdi Haddab, Laurent de Wilde, Natacha Atlas, Malouma, Mounir Troudi, and Abdelatif Yakoub

Alifchief & Charles Obina

Originally from Brunei, Alifchief has been based in Kampala for over 4 years. A musician as eclectic as he is creative, he joins forces with Adungu player Charles Obina to create an energetic and multi-influenced live show.

WORLD MUSIC DAY

The Fête de la musique (Music Celebration) is a very important event in France which aims to celebrate musical diversity and to bring people together around concerts. It is with this in mind that the AFK has partnered with the UNCC for over 20 years to celebrate music from all around the world. After a break of 2 years, we are very happy to renew this partnership!

In this edition we bring you Majnun & the Black-Magic Sofas Sofas - a French-Senegalese group that will perform alongside a few local artists such as Brian Aliddeki, The Police Band, Sarah Vauclair, R'Afrika, and Rachel Magoola in collaboration with the Jam Session - a creative experiential platform for musicians and music lovers to express themselves while promoting and developing their artistic craft.

Join us in this festive atmosphere of entertainment, games, music and drinks!

Aliddeki Brian
- Eka Waka Xperience
(Afro-Jazz Fusion)

Majnun & the Black-Magic Sofas Sofas

MAJNUN is a madman. An eternal aspirant, an insatiable person with the curiosity of a child. A simply charismatic and inspired artist.

Originally from Senegal, where he took his first steps in Hip-Hop and then in Reggae. Over the years, he has endeavored to develop a resolutely eclectic art. In coherence with his nomadic condition. Afro-beat, jazz, funk, trance and Latin music are the different colours that make up his musical fresco. His voice, which reveals the rich imagination that inhabits him, also tells us with sincerity and emotion, the incredible epic that is this human life.

Aliddeki is a Ugandan musician, educator and an innovator in folk music. As a *World-Afro Fusion Musician*, a folk song writer and a solo performing Artist from Uganda "The Evergreen Country" Aliddeki dreams of introducing this genre of music to unite people through the diversity of culture and beauty of nature.

Rachel Magoola

Rachel Magoola performed professionally with Uganda's top group, The Afrigo Band, from 1989 to 2001 when she started her solo career. She is now a successful artist in her own right, having produced six solo albums, Inhaife in 1997, Tyenda Wundi in 1998, Tonyiiga in 2000, Atwibembe 2001, Songs from the Source of the Nile in 2005 and Eisadha in 2008. She just released her latest album Resilience-Songs Of Uganda in August 2021 which topped the International Trans Global Chats in October 2021.

R'Afrika

Nicknamed "The King of thrones" or "Zaiko" of urban music, R'Afrika (Congolese artists) has participated in several festivals among others, Nyege nyege festival, Amani festival, and shared the stage with several artists including Youssoupha, Fally Ipupa, and Timaya. R'Afrika is a hip hop group with a mix of Afro, Ndombolo, Rumba, Folklore...

Sara Vauclair (French Ballad / Zouk)

Born in 1984 in the East of France, Sara Vauclair has lived in Uganda for 11 years. Sara is an author, translator and musician who works in all the arts and is constantly producing new works. From French and English Ballads to Luganda zouk songs and Afro Gospel in Lingala, Sara Vauclair Kibaya loves to tell her life story through the songs she writes.

The Police Band

The Police band has been in existence for several years and has had several talents in its ranks, such as Moses Matovu (Afrigo group), Tom Ssengendo and many other former doctors, henchmen. The members of The Police Band are all active members of Police nationwide. They are the official Jam session band since it restarted a few months ago. Beyond the groove of their music, their aim is to interact with the people of Kampala to raise awareness on how to live a crime-free life, to push sports, cultural dances, in all regions of Uganda.
